Welcome

Acclamation

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

Let us pray.
Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise

(8:30)

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy upon us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

(10:30)

Refrain: Glo - ry! Glo - ry to God! Glo - ry in the high - est! Glo - ry! Glo - ry to God!
Glo - ry to God Most High!

Choir:

O God, Holy One, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory! Refrain:

O Lord, Jesus Christ, Holy One, Redeemer,
Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world. Refrain:

You alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High God, with the Spirit in the glory to God! Refrain:

The Collect of the Day

May God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

WORD

A Reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah

Jeremiah 31:27-34

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of humans and the seed of animals. And just as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the LORD. In those days they shall no longer say:

"The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge." But all shall die for their own sins; the teeth of everyone who eats sour grapes shall be set on edge.

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt-- a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the LORD," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 119:97-104

Oh, how I love your law! *
 all the day long it is in my mind.
Your commandment has made me wiser than my enemies, *
 and it is always with me.
I have more understanding than all my teachers, *
 for your decrees are my study.
I am wiser than the elders, *
 because I observe your commandments.
I restrain my feet from every evil way, *
 that I may keep your word.
I do not shrink from your judgments, *
 because you yourself have taught me.
How sweet are your words to my taste! *
 they are sweeter than honey to my mouth.
Through your commandments I gain understanding; *
 therefore I hate every lying way.

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy

2 Timothy 3:14-4:5

As for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 18:1-8

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told his disciples a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

The Gospel of Christ

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Kristin Krantz

Blessing of the Animals

Let us pray.

God our Creator, you have given life to insects and whales and all the animals in between, and you have taught us to love all creatures. Be with us now as we give thanks for the lives our pets share with us, and as we remember those pets whom we have loved and see no longer, whom we now name. (You are invited to name, silently or aloud, pets who have crossed the rainbow bridge.)

Comfort us, renew us, strengthen us, and help us to know and share your care for all of creation. In your holy name we pray. Amen.

Please remain seated for individual pet blessings.

Closing Prayer

Adapted prayer by Mark Zimmermann

Creator God, you created animals for us to love and care for. Thank you for the joy they bring into our lives, and for the companionship they provide. Keep all of our pets safe and protected from harm. Give them nourishment and strength to continue to live well in this world and our homes. Through the bond we share with them, give us a glimpse of your holy and unconditional love. Bless the animals in our care as they eat and sleep, move and lay, and play and cuddle with us. Let us rejoice in you through them. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

All standing as able

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

With the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, let us pray for the church, those in need, and all of God's creation.

For the church universal, its ministry, and the mission of the gospel; may we be faithful to God's word. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

For the well-being of creation; for those who work in the fields, for seasonable weather, and for the equitable sharing of the fruits of the earth.
Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

For peace and justice in the world, and for those in authority; may we all work for the common good. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

For the poor, oppressed, sick, bereaved, and lonely; let us be beacons of God's love and compassion to bring them comfort. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

For all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; may they know God's presence in their distress. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Here other intercessions are offered.

Celebrant Into your hand, gracious God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy; through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

Confession

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Exchange of Peace

May the peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

We greet one another in the name of Christ.

Announcements

Thanksgivings of the Community

You are invited to offer public thanks for the movement of God's Spirit in your own life: thanks for a birthday, an anniversary, a new job, and unexpected act of compassion, or another grace-filled moment in your life. We close this time with the following prayer:

O God, our times are in your hands: Look with favor, we pray, on your servants as they mark this day. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A, The Book of Common Prayer

All standing, as able

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant prays the proper preface.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus & Benedictus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.
AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A profound silence is kept

This is the bread which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

Whoever eats this bread will live forever.

The Gifts of God for the people of God.

Holy food for holy people.

The Communion of the People

All who seek Christ are welcome at God's table.

We offer both wheat and gluten free wafers; inform the priest of your preference.

If you wish to receive a blessing please come forward and cross your arms over your chest.

If you are not receiving communion today you are invited to silently pray the Prayer for Spiritual Communion found below.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

Episcopal Prayer Book for the Armed Forces (1988)

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. And since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENDING

The Blessing

Celtic Blessing

May Christ the Good Shepherd enfold us with love, fill us with peace, and lead us in hope, this day and all our days, in the name of the Holy Trinity. Amen.

Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve God and your neighbor.

Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia!

MORE THAN ENOUGH

On Generosity

For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice..." – Luke 18:1-8

I attended Seminary in New York City. It was an amazing experience being out in the fast-paced city. Even though I was from a location that tended to greet, or at least acknowledge, passerby's I had quickly adapted to the head down fast walking culture that was dominant in Manhattan. I had also gotten accustomed to ignoring the people lacking permanent shelter along every New York Street. I had perfected the art of responding to people yet not really listening to what those on the streets were asking from me. Really, I had ceased to notice the face of God in the people around me.

One day while moving quickly through a crosswalk a man started talking to me. I responded that I didn't have any money and kept moving. He shouted at me, that he wasn't even going to ask for money. I stopped embarrassed and turned to listen closely to what he was saying. He just wanted to offer a compliment as he had seen me a few times around the block. I never would have compared myself to the unjust judge, yet there I was prejudging without even taking the time to listen.

Frequently, when thinking about those who are experiencing homelessness, we understand generosity to be the sharing of a few coins, or dollars received when leaving a store. Sometimes we may leave food, tents, some clothes, and while all those things are important and useful how often are we generously listening? Do we just assume that what those experiencing homelessness most want from us is money? Not to imply that tangible resources are not necessary but to recognize that listening to people is an act of generosity. To give of one's time, to respect the reflection of the face of God is an act of generosity, an act of justice.

Questions For Reflection:

How do your acts of generosity respect the dignity of every human being?

The Rev. Glenna Huber is the rector of Church of the Epiphany in the District of Columbia, a congregation with a long-standing primary ministry with those experiencing homelessness.

The 2022 Basket Raffle and Silent Auction Committee Thanks You!!

It is my pleasure to report that our 16th Annual Basket Raffle and Silent Auction was exceptionally successful! I am very thrilled to announce, to date, we have earned approximately $8,000, an all-time high!!!

This would not have been possible without the generosity, both in materials, time, talent and spirit, of so many of you. In particular, I would like to thank the Raffle Committee—from our fantastic “Basket Brigade” (Joan Fader, Karen Dulany, Karen Larrimore, Cheryl Windsor, and me), to our awesome new Silent Auction Chairperson Betsy Davis along with her assistants Jeanne LeRoux and Kathy Rak.

Many thanks to our Scouts, their leaders and parents from Troop 829G and 829B for their tireless efforts to help move and set up our equipment, as well as, return it to the church at the end of the day. In addition, a special thanks to our “Transportation Coordinator” Don Windsor and his assistant Howard LeRoux for driving the trucks and providing extra “muscle power” for us along with Dave Rak and Mike Henyon.

Also, kudos to Mary Hutchins-Danna for successfully coordinating the drawing and calling of the winners and to our faithful Volunteer Coordinator Betsy Davis, serving double duty this year—they each deserve a huge thanks!! A very special thank you once again to our Parish Administrator Laura Davis who is always more than willing to help in so many ways toward our success!

In addition, we are always extremely grateful for the special monetary donations, as well as, the lovely donated items received toward our baskets from our parishioners and their time to help with the moving of baskets and ticket sales. Many thanks, as well, to our Nursery School and Thrift Shop for their continued support of this important fundraising event.

Blessings to all~
